Book of Life

Papers to submit names into the Book of Life can be found in the foyer.

Today's Gospel, Matthew 5:1–12a, contains part of the Sermon on the Mount. In this passage, Jesus teaches the crowds through the Beatitudes, describing the blessings promised to those who live with humility, kindness, and faithfulness. He reminds them that "theirs is the kingdom of heaven" and that those who follow God's ways will be rewarded for their trust and devotion to Him. On All Saints' Day, we remember and honour all the saints who lived their lives in accordance with these teachings, demonstrating their faith through their words and actions. Their lives remind us that holiness is not out of reach and that we are all called to follow Christ, love others, and strive for eternal life with God.

All Souls' Remembrance Slides

The form to submit names for our annual November Remembrance Slides is now available. Alternatively, you can also email the parish office with your list of names.

Instructions

1) Before you begin, if you have already submitted the names of your deceased loved ones in a previous year, then you do not have to submit their names again as they will already be on the slides.
2) Everyone is limited to submitting three names. We kindly ask that you write their full names on the form/email.
3) Some names can be combined, such as siblings and married couples. For example, John Doe and Jane Doe can be combined into John and Jane Doe. Combined names count as one submission, allowing you to submit more names in total.
4) After you write your list of names, please add your contact details (full name and phone number).
5) Check off which Mass you would like your list of names to be shown at, as each Mass has a different set of slides to accommodate for the large number of names we receive.
6) Submit your form/email.

Misspelled Names

If you notice that the name of your deceased loved one has been spelled incorrectly on the slides, including names submitted from previous years, you can email the parish office with the corrected spelling of their name.

Stewardship

In 1 John 3:1–3, we are reminded of the great love that God has for us. Through His love, we have become children of God and are called to grow in holiness as we look forward to being with Him. As Catholics, we can respond to God's love by sharing our time, talents, and treasures in service to Him, His Church, and His people. Through faithful stewardship, we can reflect God's love in our daily lives and help others grow closer to Him.
