‘The manifestation of the Lord’

‘Through the Incarnation, the generosity and mercy of God have finally appeared among us - in the life of one who is the very expression of the Father's greatness. And so, from earliest times the Church's Christmas celebration has made reference the Epiphany, or "Manifestation" of the Lord – symbolised in the story of today's gospel.

‘The story is filled with symbolic meaning. The Magi represent the nations of the earth finding the Saviour of the world – in contrast to the scribes of Israel, familiar with the scriptures but not recognising their fulfilment; the gifts of the Magi are symbolic of the world's confession of faith in Christ – gold for royalty, frankincense for priesthood, myrrh for the one who is to die; notoriously ruthless Herod reminds us of earthly powers that obstruct the designs of God. We should note, especially, the significance of the words, "going in they saw the child with his mother, Mary".

‘While Luke's narrative of Christ's conception and birth has Mary as its central figure, Matthew's account of the virgin birth is centred on Joseph. The words we have quoted, however, reflect the importance already given to Mary in the community that gave us Matthew's gospel.’

BANNS FOR DIACONATE ORDINATION

St. Augustine's Seminary is happy to announce that Thomas Aquino is to be ordained to the Sacred Order of the Diaconate on May 26th, 2018 at St. Michael's Cathedral. In accord with Canons 1043 and 1051.2 of the new code, we are requested to publish this notice to the community. The Canon law obliges Catholics to reveal any impediment to sacred orders to the bishop or pastor.

DEACON-ELECT

Thomas Aquinas Aquino married to Maria (Abbie) Aquino for 24 years now and we have 3 daughters; Gabrielle, Isabelle and Michelle all of whom graduated from Prince of Peace school. I started volunteering at POP in 2006 as a Eucharistic Minister, Catechist for Confirmation (2008), RCIA sponsor (2011). I also volunteered at Good Shepherd Ministry (since 2007) and still do the "Socks Campaign" for them. We started the Diaconate journey in 2013. We had to learn to balance our time between our family and work obligations; studies, homework and pastoral practicum. The diaconate formation program also includes studies in attaining a degree in Theological Studies.

Let us pray!

For those who are sick members of our parish and those who love and minister to them.
