“The intimate hope of encountering the Lord’

‘With this first Sunday of Advent a new liturgical year begins: the People of God begin again on the way to living the mystery of Christ in history. Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever; history, instead, changes and requires constant evangelization; it needs to be renewed from within and the only true novelty is Christ: he is its fulfillment, the luminous future of humanity and of the world. Risen from the dead, Jesus is the Lord to whom God subjects all enemies, including death itself.

‘Advent is therefore the propitious time to awaken in our hearts the expectation of he “who is and who was and who is to come”. The Son of God has already come to Bethlehem about 20 centuries ago, he comes in each moment in the soul and in the community disposed to receive him, he will come again at the end of time “to judge the living and the dead”. The believer is therefore always vigilant, inspired by the intimate hope of encountering the Lord, as Psalm 130 says: “I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning”.’

As we wait for the coming of Christ this Advent season, let us welcome him by sharing our resources with those who are in need and let us always give “with joy in our hearts”.
