In today's Gospel, Matthew 22:34-40, a Pharisee asks Jesus which commandment in the law is the greatest. Jesus answers, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." He then mentions the second commandment: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." Through this teaching, Jesus shows that love for God and love for others is at the heart of our faith. Today's Gospel reminds us that following God means more than just obeying rules; it means showing love through our words, actions, and how we care for those around us.

All Souls' Remembrance Slides

The form to submit names for our annual November Remembrance Slides is now available. Alternatively, you can also email the parish office with your list of names.

Instructions

1) Before you begin, if you have already submitted the names of your deceased loved ones in a previous year, then you do not have to submit their names again as they will already be on the slides.
2) Everyone is limited to submitting three names. We kindly ask that you write their full names on the form/email.
3) Some names can be combined, such as siblings and married couples. For example, John Doe and Jane Doe can be combined into John and Jane Doe. Combined names count as one submission, allowing you to submit more names in total.
4) After you write your list of names, please add your contact details (full name and phone number).
5) Check off which Mass you would like your list of names to be shown at, as each Mass has a different set of slides to accommodate for the large number of names we receive.
6) Submit your form/email.

Misspelled Names

If you notice that the name of your deceased loved one has been spelled incorrectly on the slides (including names submitted from previous years), you can email the parish office with the corrected spelling of their name. Please be sure to include which Mass the name was shown at, as the slides are different for each Mass.

Stewardship

In 1 Thessalonians 1: 5c-10, St. Paul praises the Thessalonians for welcoming the Gospel and turning away from idols to serve the living and true God. Their faith became an example to others, showing how faith can inspire action and bring people closer to Christ. As Catholics, we are called to follow in their footsteps by dedicating our time, talents, and treasures in service to God, His Church, and His people. Through faithful stewardship, we can help share the Gospel, serve those in need, and lead others closer to Christ.
